Adopted Rule & Regulation (Adopted 12-20-18):

No Owner may sell or otherwise transfer or convey a property or any interest thereto without first providing the Association, at least twenty (20) days prior to the closing date of the proposed transaction, with a completed Home Sale/Conveyance Information Form. This Form may require the Owner to provide the name and address of the intended purchaser/transferee, an executed copy of any purchase and sale agreement (with purchase price redacted) including any exhibits, and any other information concerning the intended purchaser/transferee and the transaction as the Board of Directors may reasonably require. Any purported transfer in violation of this Rule may be deemed void ab initio and of no force and effect, and may be subject to legal action seeking rescission of the transaction, with the prior Unit Owner being jointly and severally liable for the Association's costs and reasonable attorneys' fees through all appellate levels and whether or not suit is brought.
